Description

Set in an enviable, elevated position is this this substantial five bedroom detached home.

The approach to the gated driveway is via a private road with Oakhurst House enjoying an attractive position within an intimate close.

The extensive accommodation is arranged over two floors with the ground floor comprising of an extremely large and welcoming entrance hall with doors leading to all of the principal ground floor reception rooms, with stairs rising to the first floor landing.

Overlooking the attractive landscaped rear garden is the well-appointed open plan kitchen/breakfast room with its central island and the adjoining dining room, both spaces enjoying folding doors to the rear garden.

Completing the ground floor space is a spacious study, drawing room, cloakroom and utility room.

There are five spacious bedrooms to the first floor, three of which are served by a family bathroom from the landing with the master bedroom and guest bedroom both benefiting from either an en-suite shower room or bathroom.

The extensive gardens are particularly attractive, with a large terrace located from the kitchen and dining room and well-kept formal lawns extending to the rear boundary, all enclosed via mature trees.

Location

The village centre at Angmering has a good range of local facilities including public houses, shopping and a railway station. The village itself lies between Chichester and Brighton and has become a popular location for second homeowners commuting from London. There is an abundance of leisure activities on your doorstep, including Chichester Marina for those with a passion for yachting or Goodwood, which offers horseracing, motor racing, golf and a variety of other leisure activities. This makes Angmering Village an ideal location for anyone interested in a weekend or summer retreat.

Transport is convenient with the local Angmering mainline station serving London Victoria, Brighton, Portsmouth, and Southampton. Gatwick airport is about 40 miles away from Angmering.
